

Jeremiah 29:13

You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

Father God, having a walk with you and praying to you has been a struggle all my life, and I have never really felt close to you. Mostly I have prayed to you when something went wrong or I needed something. I read this simple statement that you are to be found, but only by those who search for you with all their hearts. I think that's been my trouble. My heart has searched for lots of things but not you. I ask for forgiveness. I know you are God. I am now old. But here I am and I am asking with all my heart that you make yourself known to me in such a way that I will know you love and forgive, and from today on for the rest of my life, I will walk with you, even into Heaven. I thank you with all my heart. Amen.
