

Psalm 27:13-14

I am confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.

Father God, some days in this place, away from my own home, with new people and away from my family, with few choices I get to make about my life...some days are difficult and I feel sad and homesick. I ask you to help me be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord. Help me to wait in trust and peace, knowing you have not forgotten me. You are caring for me and have a plan for my life even now...as I grow older and weaker, increase my faith in you and your plan to someday take me to be with you in the land of the living. Thank you, dear Lord Jesus. Amen.
