

James 1:6

But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea blown and tossed by the wind.

Father God, doubting a person's word is offensive because it means we don't believe what they are saying. In the human world, there may be reason not to believe, not to trust...but in our relationship with God, there is none. Lord, I get the picture of a wave of the sea being tossed about by the wind...but I want not to offend you. When I pray to you, there is every reason to trust you...actually to trust and obey, like you say. Sometimes what I ask is so great, requires such power and change, it is difficult for me to believe my own request is possible. I do not want to be like a wave of the sea, tossed about by the wind. The wind of difficulty is ever blowing, BUT YOU ARE GOD! Amen.*
