

Deuteronomy 33:25

As thy days, so shall thy strength be.

Father God, many days now I do not feel strong, but weak. This is very different than when I was young and healthy, actively involved in many things. When I was young, I never thought this would happen to me. But gradually I have grown older and physically weaker. I am grateful for this promise. Enough strength for the day. That strength is from you. So, I will not worry about tomorrow because you give power to the faint and to those who have no might you increase their strength. What you have said to your child, you meant. What you promise, you keep. I am thankful, Father. I rest in you. Amen.
