

Psalm 71:18

Even when I am old and gray do not forsake me, my God, until I declare your power to the next generation, your mighty acts to all who are to come.

Father God, the prayer not to be forsaken was often prayed by Old Testament godly people, who lived prior to the individual filling of the Holy Spirit in all who are born again of His Spirit. It was why God promised in many words, many times that He would not forsake. He understood. The wonderful thing we see here is that the obligation to pass God's Truth to the next generation was taken seriously. It is a mandate in Scripture. Father, I pray you will give me this burden and opportunity and anointing that I may share with the next generation in loving and wise ways, with much prayer. Show me how. Amen
