

Psalm 103:18b

...But from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear Him, and His righteousness with their children's children—with those who keep His covenant and remember to obey His precepts.

Father God, help me to remember that you are the God of generations...as is your love. Keep in my mind that phrase of everlasting to everlasting. Keep in my mind that this describes your love. Even when my days on earth are ended and I am with you, your love still covers my children and grandchildren, because you have been faithful to enable me to keep Your covenant and obey Your precepts. I love you, Father. I love you for loving me and for promising me Your love for my children and their children. Father, turn their hearts toward you day by day. Turn their hearts toward HOME. Amen.
