

Psalm 103:5

...who satisfies your desires with good things
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Father God, thank you for keeping the desires of my heart in your safe keeping and control. When I was away from you my desires were the same as those of others around me, filled with selfishness and no concern about your will. Thank you that you hold the springs of my thoughts and being as God. All good comes from you, to such an extent that sometimes I don't recognize good desires from those not good for me. Your will renews and bears good fruit, so shape my will to yours. Eagles soar at awesome heights and their flight is one of joy and power. Let that work you do in my mind and heart cause my soul to soar in flight to heights I never dreamed of with you, dear Lord Jesus. Amen.
