

Psalm 103:4

...who redeems your life from the pit...

Father God, when I think of the pit, I think of a place from which I could never get out. Joseph, in the Old Testament, was placed in a pit, and a ransom was paid for him by Egyptian slave traders. But he was then kept in bondage for many years. When you redeem us from the pit, the redemption price was paid by Jesus on the Cross, and we are removed from the pit of despair, and enmity, and hopelessness, and all kinds of bad things. You take us into a life lived with you, and we have peace and security, and hope, and all kinds of good things. Thank you, Lord. Amen.
