

HE LIVES

*I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today;
I know that He is living, whatever men may say;
I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer,
And just the time I need Him...He's always near.*

(Refrain)

*In all the world around me I see His loving care,
And tho' my heart grows weary I never will despair;
I know that He is leading thro' all the stormy blast,
The day of His appearing will come at last.*

(Refrain)

*Rejoice, rejoice, O Christian, lift up your voice to sing
Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him, the Help of all who find,
None other is so loving, so good and kind.*

(Refrain: Spirited)

HE LIVES, HE LIVES,

CHRIST JESUS LIVES TODAY!

HE WALKS WITH ME AND TALKS WITH ME

ALONG LIFE'S NARROW WAY.

HE LIVES, HE LIVES, SALVATION TO IMPART!

YOU ASK ME HOW I KNOW HE LIVES?

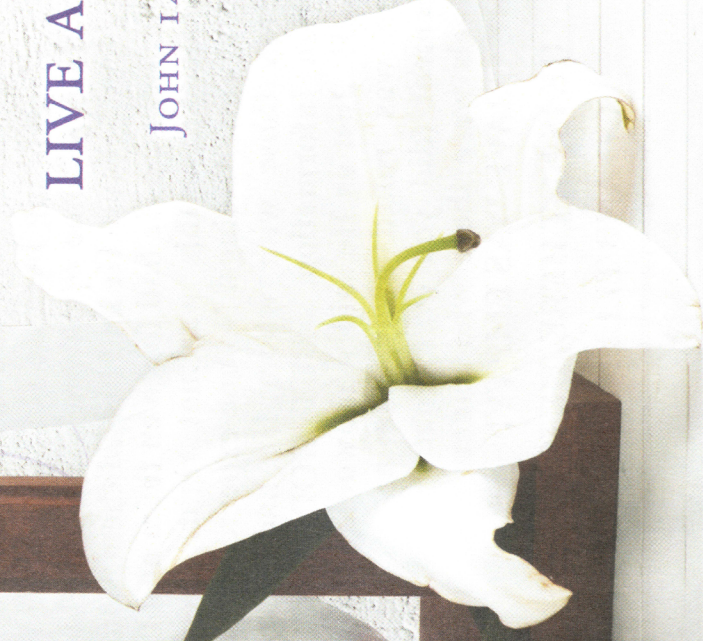

HE LIVES WITHIN MY HEART!

Because I live,

YE SHALL

LIVE ALSO.

JOHN 14:19

Crucifixions were popular events... these drew crowds. This one would have been no exception...in fact it was likely attended by more onlookers than others because the One man being crucified had become well known by adults and children, young and old, rich and poor, intellectual and simple minded, clergy, temple staff, the pharisees and publicans, the laboring man, the servant staff, religious and non religious. In fact, only days before a large group followed Him as a parade into Jerusalem with praises and hosannas, placing their garments on the road for His ride on a donkey... waving palm branches, proclaiming Him a King.

A week had passed and so had the parade. The crowd watched the King in the courtyard, shuffled back and forth in the court system and finally to the Cross. A crowd of mixed people and rulers: Some were shouting insults, some were elated He would be in their synagogue no more, some were mechanically doing what is done at crucifixions...but some were watching with tears because He had healed them; some children were crying because they had sat on His lap; some mothers were sobbing because He loved their families and blessed them; some who were blinded could see the dreadful scene because He had healed them; some were wondering because He had forgiven them and they felt clean; some knew this was not right...there were strange and eerie feelings. No one expected to see Him again...even those with whom He had shared His resurrection information. BUT GOD! BUT GOD! BUT GOD! Just as He said what would take place... the stone was rolled away, the angels made the announcement (did you ever wonder if some of the same angels were those who announced His birth?).
THE GRAVE WAS EMPTY!

HE IS NOT HERE, HE IS RISEN!

GO AND TELL! GO AND TELL!

FROM THE BIBLE:

The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. As the Father has life in Himself; so has He given to the Son to have life in Himself.

I AM THE RESURRECTION, AND THE LIFE; HE THAT BELIEVES IN ME, THOUGH HE WERE DEAD, YET SHALL HE LIVE; AND WHOSOEVER LIVES AND BELIEVES IN ME SHALL NEVER DIE.

Christ, being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over Him. For in that He died, He died unto sin once: but in that He lives, He lives unto God.

I am He that lives, and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore. Though He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God.

IN HIM DWELLS ALL THE FULLNESS OF THE GODHEAD BODILY.

AND WE ARE COMPLETE IN HIM...
